1. The following colonels, who are all Soviets with Polish names, have been promoted to brigadier generals: WYGNANSKI, HUSZCZA, WARYSZAK, and JAKUBIK (JALUBIC).
2. In Sluzewiec, in the vicinity of Warsaw, there is a training establishment operated by the foreign service security police (SZUB), which trains Polish diplomatic and consular officials for collaboration with the UB (Security Police) during their foreign sojourns. The training is said to last from six months up to three years. It is thought that no official of the foreign ministry has been appointed to a foreign post since 1949 without having received SZUB recommendation.
3. The former German ammunition stores which are situated about 3-4 kilometers west of Oksywie are now controlled by the Polish Navy.
4. Kolobrzeg (Kolberg) is still in ruins. Only barracks and UB buildings have been reconstructed. Since October 1953 construction work has been in progress in an area of about 2 kilometers square south of the fishing harbor. This area is enclosed by barbed wire and is guarded by military sentries. The workers, numbering about 500 Poles, live in barracks located in the woods and are kept separate from the remainder of the population.
5. At present, there is a great deal of tension between the population in Swinoujscie (Swinemuende) and the men of the Soviet garrison in Swinoujscie. The latter have, in connection with illegal liquor business, assaulted and robbed some Poles and forced themselves on women. Two Soviets were said to have been killed. There is now a curfew after 2100 hours and the streets are patrolled by Soviets.
6. About 1,500 Germans, who refused to accept Polish citizenship, have recently been sent out of Poland. A group of about 400 was sent to East Germany via Szczecin (Stettin). In a transit camp at the border, they are forced to sign a pledge that they will not talk about conditions in Poland and that they will not leave East Germany.
